Issue 5 January 2011

Hello everyone,

I do hope that you all had a good Christmas break. We are already well into the second term of our instrumental lesson program. By now you should have received term dates, schedules and an invoice for lessons. Please let me know if you haven't received your invoice for this term.

TRINITY GUILDHALL EXAMINATIONS

Due to the very late Easter holiday it seems that this year the Trinity Guildhall exams will take place early May. I will be contacting all parents of Trinity students over the next week as applications are actually due soon. Payment will need to be made by Friday 18th Feb to ensure entry for the spring session.

SATURDAY PERFORMING ARTS CLASSES

These classes are proving to be a runaway hit with our students and classes are already full for this term. We have just expanded into a second studio in order to accommodate our Broadway Stars and Musical Youth Theatre students. It is going to be great having our own performing space right next door to our current studio location. We will be holding a Parents Day at the end of term to showcase what the students have learnt over the term.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS - INTENSIVE PERFORMING ARTS CAMP

Monday 18th – Thursday 21st April 2011 8:00 – 4:00pm

We're putting on a show in four days! Students will be dancing, singing and acting in at least three segments of the show. It's going to be a great deal of fun – watch your inbox for further details.
